

HYENAZ – HYENAZ (2013)

1.

Bone

Naked animal, hungry eyes outside yellow lights the way, of sharing hands, we are sharing

Fashioned from my bones I gave my self to yellow lights but are we sharing this are we sharing

I lay down the law
I lay down the law
I lay down the law

Moving shadow move aside sacrifice your hide the way, you were running out, you were running

I lay down the law
I lay down the law
I lay down the law

It was as dark as the night as the day as the moon.
I didn't dream that night, I didn't dream at all

It was as cold as the ice as the fire in your eye I could have burned it all, I could have blown it all away.

Blown it all away... away!

2.

Burning Tonight

Breathing glitter
girlz we stand together falling at your footsteps we raise a cry I am tied up bruised and battle worn brazen splintered

we face the wall

Biding your time your warring limitations safe as mine falsify legitimation justifies our time our warring discriminations saved through time our holy imitations

And we cry
and we cry
and we cry

And we cry
and we cry
and we cry

3.

Scavenge

Scratch your wounds sacrificial rite
we live from now happy as a child I lick your blood taste your skin await the signs that lay within

I feel I'm skinned barbie dolls ran free cement battlefield lies opposite me towers looming born of blood meals are my metals, diamonds in my mud divine customers discard their meals searching in silence haven't tongues metal tooth cuts our desire what flesh discerned is set on fire

Howling down streets of desperate trust shit of your children has become my only love what did you expect when you came for me I'm in your bathroom I'm hiding up your tree

If we live on I wont forget you
if you still need me
I will protect you
if we live on I wont forsake you
if you still need me
I will protect you

4. Nightwalk

Stay up late choose your dress
sidewalk catwalk
I like our mess dress your face
choose your dress
I like the pink one it suits you best

black reflection metro train they glance our bodies with sullen disdain lipstick traces trust my mouth lock our eyes and we'll lock them out

Street lights
young skin
hold tight we begin your mouth
you like it there I hope
you'll take my dare

painted lips
make them grieve they want to believe your eyes
live my dream one glance
is obscene

And we'll blaze
and we'll blaze

Risk your body risk your life
cut the mouth
with the cutting knife

What will scare you are you afraid find my body an escapade

Eat your breath
warm my cunt
find the object we were speaking of tender cunt

hold me tight screams like fire silent night

and we'll blaze

5. Heat

There was a time ... there was a time ... with summer rain ... summer rain ...

Dance my sweetheart dance

Summer rain
drives us to fall
summer rain
drags us apart
summer rain
summer rain

6. Sister

In the tall grass we fall, over, we fall backwards a childlike curiosity magic

The gold glows through your hair scented halo in it's tenderest form we appear ageless

Sister, sister, sister

Our morphing body so easy and so free we are switching

I feel the fullness, I feel your power I see everything in its tenderest form gold, glowing through a halo of your hair

Inside the grass we make a tunnel we burrow a home

It feels delirious my pleasure sounds absorbed by wind and grass ageless and innocent falls away-----

Exotic world
bare skin
I dare myself to come within but the Consciousness creeps in
the consciousness
the consciousness creeps in

The rain falling around us and the statues emerge through the fog but my consciousness creeps my consciousness creeps in

I wanna play with you again! i wanna play with you
sister
The consciousness
the consciousness
creeps in!

We are coming closer we float forwards our jaws dropping we find ourselves there underneath the grass inside the earth sinking in I let myself become soaked

I feel the wet
my hair is dripping

my hair is dripping

Here we are falling

we are lost

I want to be lost and I will fall!

sister!

How can I return again?

How can i return again?

The consciousness creeps in

How can i ever return again when i have seen this SISTER ?!?!?!

7.

Reading

8.

Desperate Knowledge

9.

Calling to the End Time

10.

Dawn

The dawn

I am waiting for the dawn

I am waiting for dawn

Call for you

Wait for me

I shatter shatter

sha- shatter shatter

call for you you

call for

call

call for you

Wait for impending dawn sit by the firelight and watch them burn
--diamonds red, finite endless--night
--I feel so cold await the impending dawn I sit by--your side and watch--it endlessly burn you look withdrawn down by time beneath before we breathe our lives away I want to hold on to you to hold on to you every fin--ger that you give

Light burns the sky all my life
endless dawn

11. Hurt

Takes a new direction she finds the spectre of her past wakes up naked she walks naked down this path faces turn with recognition recall a forest of blank pressure bursts ...

Wherever we wander I find the earth still weeps my minds an open trap and you fall in it deep crept across your body I find a crow in the fields and I lie I lie

Why do you hurt?
why do you ... why do you hurt?

12. Plastic Islands

I walk on empty fields burned by desire

I long to build with you a perfect fire party on ashes of the vanished Jews the time has come for us to pay our dues.

Rape hate waste denial eat want sex desire

Faces that haunt the night, we turn away. forces we can't control, fear comes in waves a knife that split the earth, made me and you.
end all dualities.

Justify justify justify denial

I want to touch the ground with my lips I want to lick this city's asshole with my tongue I been digging a hole down in this I'm gonna sink down so far the answer glitters in your sewers
