지구가 아니야

It Was Not The Earth

It's over

We're not lines in a plan

Lines in a plan

Veins in a leaf

Lone systems coil

May lie life I hold you

Certain
A certain
A certain desire
A certain certain moment
Like marrow from a bone
Sucked dry by the wind

It was not the earth
It was not the earth

Waiting for veins to grow in trees
And roots to flow with seeds

모래밭에 말라가는 해파리

Jellyfish drying on the sand

빛을 향해 위로 뻗으며

Reaching towards the light!

Needing the earth

Leaning into

Grounded trees

Grounded, looking up

Grounded runs deep

Looking up

Collecting its courage

Seeking from the earth

Our treasure.

Dead, dead, like the silence

Broken, the lie.

우리의 뜻
Our Intention

Our intention was one of transmutation of the space as stone into porous space that allows for gaps that allows for the entrance of water

We followed the water
this water bubbling up from the gaps in the stone We allowed the water to enter in, at first unseen and then to slowly build into a visible trickle and then into a great force of running water

We let it guide us through green forest and pine to a calm still pool
We allowed it to gather and collect
We let it rise like steam into the air
Thus we followed the spectrum of water in our ritual

Our intention
was to allow for trans-thinking To queer our space both in the natural world as well as in the institutional one

Our intention was to challenge the structures that create and sustain violence to subvert the architecture of institutions that add weight and gravity to those structures though we acknowledge our contribution to those edifices

And on a personal level we hope we allow forgiveness for our role in that structure to find calm while on a larger level we hope that our offering focuses us on the life long struggle to break borders to transgress binary structures to subvert top-down approaches

We are always approaching and never reaching our height of gnosis.

Here we open a portal
Here we find ourselves lying dry on the sand Here we find ourselves reaching for the light Insignificant and significance creatures Both and all and either and together and both all at the same time

What can we dream here ?
What can we dream here?
What? What? What do we want to say?
What can we dream here?
